GREAT CATHOLIC EVENT SCHEDULED HERE FOR MAY 26

Tonopah Council, Knights of Columbus, has arranged for an event which will cut a great figure in the Catholic history of Nevada. This is securing for Tonopah the institution of the Fourth Degree of the order which will bring to the city the best elements of the state from public and private life. It is estimated that at least a hundred distinguished men from Reno, Ely, Carson City, Las Vegas and Goldfield will be here to see the degree exemplified. The list of candidates has not yet been officially sanctioned but, under the regulations of the order a class cannot be inducted unless there are at least 100 members.

The degree will be put on at Knights of Columbus hall on Sunday, May 26. The ceremony will be preceded by a solemn high mass which will be attended by the candidates. The Right Reverend Bishop Glass has been invited and, if he is not able to attend his place will be taken by Monsignor Cushman of Ogden.

WHAT'S WHAT

(By L. L. Mushett.)

Vol. I. Tonopah, May 8 No. 50

Mr. Warren V. Richardson, City.

Dear Warren:—All last night I lie on my pillow tossing and tumbling and debating in my mind whether or not you were correct in advising me to discontinue the publication of this growing paper. After carefully sizing the thing up from several different angles I have come to the conclusion that it is a fifty-fifty proposition. I know that most of the issues are badly decayed but every once in awhile we grab one that almost makes up for the bum ones and lots of people read 'em all. Now about getting people sore: The only real bad one that I seem to have pulled was when I called Woodrow for setting such a fast pace in subscribing for Liberty bonds and the only drawback to that was that I made Fltz sore and he shaved me with a dull razor and I remonstrated with him but he kept right on torturing me and I thought right then that I would lay off the politicians, because you can never tell when those birds are going to get a crack at you.

The principle thing is to get the proper kind of advertising when you want to sell something quick and as everybody is interested in what a newspaper just has to say, they read your ads just the same as the gossip. Now, Warren, if you don't think this advertising is a success you go to Bill Booth and give him a short ad about something you want to sell quick and I'll let Bill run it in "What's What" and if you don't get results quick we won't charge you a cent. Sincerely,

LEE.

OUTSIDE AUXILIARIES RED CROSS ARE DOING EXCELLENT WORK

Several of the outside auxiliaries of the Red Cross have been heard from within the last few days and their shipments show that they are busily engaged doing their bit. Manhattan sent in ten pairs of pajamas, six hospital shirts, seven bandages and one sweater. Round Mountain's contribution consisted of six pairs of pajamas, one hospital shirt, thirty-nine bandages and one sweater. Beatty sent in four sweaters, three pairs of wristlets and ten sculler's bandages. A sweater and wristlets were sent in by Reva Farish, aged 16, sweater and wristlets by Thelma Farish, aged 12, and a sweater by Ruth Milliken, aged 12. The workmanship on these articles was the equal of any done by far older and more experienced workers and was admired by all who saw them.

EDITORS GATHER IN IMPORTANT MEETING

L. V. Ricketts, president of the Nevada State Press association, received a letter from Graham Sanford of the Reno Evening Gazette, who wrote as a member of the state council of national defense, stating that this organization, at the direction of the government, had called a "war conference," to be held in Reno, Nevada, on the 16th and 17th of May, at which every war activity will be represented by county, city and community delegates.

He stated that the state council of national defense urgently requested that the Nevada Press association meet on these two days, and so arrange its program that it can participate in the conference without interfering with its own business meeting.

In accordance with the wishes of the state council of national defense, and on account of it being time to hold the annual meeting of the Nevada Press association, Mr. Ricketts, president of the association, communicated with all the members of the executive committee, and after being advised of their concurrence in the matter, instructed the secretary to notify the members that a meeting would be held in Reno on the 16th and 17th of May. The notices have been mailed, and, no doubt, a good attendance will be had. At this time it is the duty of every member to lend his co-operation.

Well Rehearsed.

The Bavarians in a captured trench the moment our fellows appeared automatically put up their hands, yelled, "Mercy, kamerad," and formed up into single files for passing into the cages, relates an English soldier. A stolid Tommy, noticing the precision with which they carried out the latter movement, exclaimed, "What organizers these Fritzies are. They even practiced surrender drill."

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER.

Owing to the non-arrival of the feature that was advertised for today, "The Splendid Sinner," featuring Mary Garden, the Butler will show in its place a five-reel wonderplay featuring Frances Nelson in "The Beautiful Lie." "The Beautiful Lie" is a great poem dramatized, from Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous poem, "A Reverie in a Station House."

Selection from the most dramatic portions of the poem are flashed on the screen. Powerfully contrasting scenes are shown in "The Beautiful Lie." One of the most interesting of these is of a police court where women offenders are arraigned.

Here Louise, (Frances Nelson), is brought under a false accusation, and thrown in among criminals. Later she becomes an artist's model, and the productions shows typical scenes in New York's "Bohemia."

A painting of Louise, as an "ice maiden" figures predominantly. Advised by Mary, an unfortunate woman, who aids her when she is in need, to take all and give nothing, she presents a cold exterior to all men, and is painted in the character of the ice maiden by Paul Vivian, a young artist. A yachting trip, taken by a prominent architect and his group of bon vivants, adds to the colorful scenes with which this gripping photoplay is filled. Also with this five-reel feature will be seen Hearst-Pathe News with some mighty exciting scenes of over here and "over there." Tomorrow Jack Pickford and Louise Huff in "Jack and Jill."
